

MARC GOLD

Born in Montreal, Marc Gold is a graduate of McGill University and holds law degrees from the University of British Columbia and Harvard Law School. A former law professor and Associate Dean at Osgoode Hall Law School in Toronto, he currently is Vice-President of Maxwell Cummings & Sons Holdings Limited and an Adjunct Professor at the Faculty of Law, McGill University.

Marc Gold plays an active role as a volunteer in the community. He is Immediate Past President of FEDERATION CJA and the co-President of La Fondation de la Tolérance. He is a member of the Executive Committee of the Montreal Symphony Orchestra and a member of the Conseil de l'Université, Université de Montréal, with tenure. He is also a member of the Executive Committee of United Israel Appeals Federations Canada, and its incoming President in 2010; a member of the Board of Governors of the Jewish Agency for Israel, and a member of the Board of Directors of the Canada-Israel Committee, having served as its Past Chair. Marc served as President of the FEDERATION CJA Israel and Overseas Committee for three consecutive years. Marc is active in the Advocacy Summit group of QIC, and a Vice-President of Temple Emmanuel Beth Shalom.

He is married to Nancy Cummings Gold, and has two children, Jennifer and Jonathan and is the grandfather of Abigail.

Accomplishments:

Past President FEDERATION CJA

National Chair Canada Israel Committee and Quebec Israel Committee

Chair of UIAFC after serving as member of the board and executive for many years

Member of board and executive of CIJA

Honorary Trustee Jewish General Hospital

President of the Tolerance Foundation

Member Task Force on Israeli Arab issues

Responsible Montreal Jewish Community's Response to the Bouchard-Taylor Commission