

JEWISH FEDERATIONS OF CANADA - UIA
הפדרציות היהודיות בקנדה - UIA
FÉDÉRATIONS JUIVES DU CANADA - UIA

President and Chief Executive Officer

Jewish Federations of Canada-UIA ("JFC-UIA") works locally, nationally and internationally in partnership with Jewish Federations and regional communities across Canada to strengthen Jewish life and provide critical and enriching programs and services in Canada, Israel and overseas. The opportunity and power of JFC-UIA lies in its ability to collaborate with and uniquely support all communities across Canada in ways that are relevant for each one, as a critical link connecting Canadians to Israel. JFC-UIA helps to strengthen the collective impact at the national level, empowering communities and helping them to maximize their philanthropic capacity while nurturing the commitment among Canadian Jews both to one another and to Israel.

Reporting to the JFC-UIA Chair and Board of Directors, the JFC-UIA President and Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") will inspirationally lead a team to collaboratively deliver exceptional value to all of its partners, Jewish Federations and regional communities, their lay leaders and their donors. JFC-UIA's new President and CEO is a highly credible leader, who navigates easily within complex environments to proactively engage all partners and stakeholders at home and abroad. She/he seeks to know how JFC-UIA can help Federation CEOs and their lay leaders succeed in the advancement and growth of distinctive fundraising initiatives and capacity building in Jewish Canadian communities and within Israel.

High energy, the JFC-UIA President and CEO has a finger on the pulse of leaders and doers in communities coast to coast. With finely tuned collaboration, relationship building and communication skill sets, she/he is able to take ideas, trends and conversations to the next level for JFC-UIA and its partners. The new President and CEO will creatively deliver meaningful tools that resonate and support the needs and objectives of Canadian Federations, regional communities and Israel. Recognized as an exceptional partner, she/he possesses the imagination and know-how to translate desires into tools that are valuable for Federations and their donors at every level and every age. From the development of demographically targeted and curated experiences that engage community donors, to the delivery of innovative approaches that support the Federations' ability to capture planned gifts, endowments and bequests, the President and CEO has the ability to see the art of the possible in people, places and systems.

Located in Toronto, Canada, the incoming JFC-UIA President and CEO will be a motivational leader and outstanding communicator with a track record of bringing out the best in people across geographies. She/he will have facilitated the creative growth of an organization and enjoyed helping teams, lay leaders, donors and communities succeed in realizing their objectives and dreams, or demonstrate the ability to do so. She/he will have a passion for Israel and seek to make a difference in Canada and Israel today by stewarding JFC-UIA to deliver exceptional results for all Jewish Federations and regional communities, raising the bar at home, in Israel and internationally for many years to come.

ARLINGTON PARTNERS
INTERNATIONAL

If you are interested in exploring this exciting JFC-UIA President and CEO opportunity, please provide a detailed resume highlighting your CEO and executive leadership experience to Lisa Heidman LL.B., ICD.D, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Arlington Partners International at lisaheidman@arlingtonpartnersinc.com and Deborah Magidson, Senior Client Partner, Assessment at deborahmagidson@arlingtonpartnersinc.com. A detailed position profile highlighting desired key competencies will be provided to all candidates under consideration.